PART II

ESTABLISHMENT AND CONDUCT OF AFFAIRS OF BANK

3. (1) There shall be a Bank to be called the Central Bank of Malta. The Bank shall form an integral part of the European System of Central Banks as established under the Treaties and shall participate in carrying out the tasks and complying with the objectives conferred upon it by the Treaties and the Statute and shall assume all rights and obligations consequential to such a status.

Establishment of Bank.
Amended by:
I. 2007.7;
XIII. 2013.3.

(2) The Bank shall be a body corporate having a distinct legal personality and be capable, subject to the provisions of this Act, of entering into contracts, of acquiring, holding and disposing of any property for the purpose of its functions, of suing and of being sued, and of doing all such things and entering into all such transactions as are incidental or conducive to the exercise or performance of its functions under this Act.

4. In accordance with the Treaties and the Statute, the primary objective of the Bank shall be to maintain price stability. Without prejudice to its primary objective, the Bank shall support the general economic policies in the Union with a view to contributing to the achievement of the objectives of the Union as laid down in Article 3 of the Treaty on European Union and shall act in accordance with the principles set out in Article 119 of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union.

Objectives.
Amended by:
XXVI.1994.4.
Substituted by:
XVII. 2002.67.
Amended by:
I. 2007.8.
Substituted by:
XIII. 2013.4.

Functions of the Bank.

Added by:

I. 2007.9.

Amended by:

XIII. 2013.5.

5. (1) In accordance with the Treaties and the Statute, the functions of the Bank shall include the following:

- (a) to implement monetary policy;
- (b) to hold and manage financial assets;
- (c) to ensure the stability of the financial system;
- (d) to formulate and implement macro-prudential policy;
- (e) to promote a sound and efficient payment system;
- (f) to provide for the circulation of euro banknotes;
- (g) to provide for the circulation of euro coins issued for and on behalf of the Government;
- (h) to advise the Government generally on financial and economic matters;
- (i) to compile and publish statistics as may be necessary to carry out its tasks.

(2) In accordance with the Treaties and the Statute, neither the Bank nor any member of the Board or any official of the Bank, when exercising any function, duty or power under this Act, shall seek or take instructions from the Government or any other body.

Principal office of Bank.

Amended by:

XI. 1988.3.

Substituted by:

XVII. 2002.68.

6. The Bank shall have its principal office in Malta; it may open offices outside Malta and it may appoint agents and correspondents.

Board of Directors.

Amended by:

XVII. 2002.69;

IX. 2005.2;

I. 2007.10;

XIII. 2013.6.

7. (1) There shall be a Board of Directors which shall be responsible for the policy and general administration of the affairs and business of the Bank, except in relation to the functions imposed, and the exercise of powers conferred, on the Bank by or under the Treaties or the Statute.

(2) The members of the Board shall be the Governor, the two Deputy Governors, and the four other directors appointed under article 9.

Governor and Deputy Governors.

Amended by:

XIX.1974.2;

LVIII.1974.68;

XIII.1983.2;

XI.1988.4;

XXVI.1994.6;

XVII.2002.70;

I.2007.11;

XIII.2013.7.

8. (1) The Governor and the Deputy Governors shall be persons of recognised standing and experience in economic, financial or banking matters and shall each be appointed by the President of Malta, acting on the advice of the Prime Minister. They shall be appointed for a term of five years but shall be eligible for re-appointment. They shall receive such remuneration as shall be set out in their respective letters of appointment.

(2) (a) The Governor has the sole responsibility for the performance of the functions imposed, and the exercise of powers conferred, on the Bank by or under the Treaties and the Statute.

(b) Without prejudice to paragraph (a), the Governor shall be in charge of the day-to-day management and operations of the Bank in accordance with the policy of the Board and shall be answerable to the Board for his acts and decisions in this respect. The representation of the Bank in judicial proceedings shall be vested in the Governor.

(3) One Deputy Governor shall support the Governor by performing duties related to monetary policy and other duties as the Governor may direct. A second Deputy Governor shall support the Governor by performing duties related to financial stability and other duties as the Governor may direct. In the event of -

- (a) the absence of the Governor, the Governor shall designate a Deputy Governor to perform the duties of the Governor;
- (b) a vacancy in the office of the Governor, the Board shall designate a Deputy Governor to perform the duties of the Governor, until a new Governor is appointed as soon as possible under subarticle (1); and the Deputy Governor so designated shall have and may exercise the powers and perform the functions of the Governor.

(4) The Governor and the Deputy Governors shall devote the whole of their professional time to the service of the Bank and while holding that office shall not occupy any other office or employment whether remunerated or not:

Provided that they may be appointed in their capacity as Governor or Deputy Governors of the Bank, as the case may be, to sit on any board, commission or committee, by whatever name called, whether in Malta or outside Malta and provided further that such activity is not in the opinion of the Board in conflict with the performance of their duties under this Act.

(5) The Governor and the Deputy Governors may be relieved of their office only if they no longer fulfil the conditions required for the performance of their duties or if they have been guilty of serious misconduct.

(6) The Governor may be requested by the House of Representatives to report on the conduct of the Bank before a committee of the House of Representatives appointed for this purpose and to provide such committee with any information deemed necessary:

Provided that the Governor may not be so requested more often than once every six months.

9. (1) For the purposes of this article, the term director shall exclude the Governor and the Deputy Governors.

(2) The directors of the Bank, shall -

- (a) be appointed by the Prime Minister;
- (b) be persons of recognised standing and professional experience in economic, financial or banking affairs;
- (c) hold office for a period of five years and on such terms and conditions as may be set out in their respective letters of appointment, and shall be eligible for reappointment;

Directors other than Governor and Deputy Governors.
Amended by:
XIX. 1974.3;
XVII. 2002.71.
Substituted by:
I. 2007.12.
Amended by:
XIII. 2013.8.

- (d) be entitled to such honorarium as the Prime Minister may determine.
- (3) No person shall be appointed or shall remain a director who -
  - (a) is a member of the House of Representatives;
  - (b) is a director or salaried official of an institution licensed to provide financial or banking services or holds more than one per centum of the ordinary paid up share capital of such institution;
  - (c) is an officer in the public service;
  - (d) under the law of any country has been adjudged bankrupt or made a composition with his creditors or is legally incapacitated or has been convicted of a crime affecting public trust or of theft or of fraud or of knowingly receiving property obtained by theft or fraud;
  - (e) holds any other position, or is otherwise in a position, which is in conflict with his duties as a director under this Act.
- (4) A director may be relieved of his office on the grounds of inability to perform the functions of his office, or of misbehaviour; and for the purposes of this subarticle, repeated unjustified non-attendance of Board meetings may deem to amount to misbehaviour.

Disclosure of interest.
Amended by:
XVII. 2002.72.

10. (1) A director who is directly or indirectly interested, otherwise than as a director or in common with other directors, in a contract made or proposed to be made by the Bank shall disclose the nature of his interest at the first meeting of the Board at which he is present after the relevant facts have come to his knowledge.

(2) Any disclosure made under the preceding sub-article shall be recorded in the minutes of the Board and, after the disclosure, that director shall withdraw from the meeting while such contract is discussed or decided on by the Board.

(3) No director shall obtain any credit accommodation from the Bank during his period of office.

Disqualification, resignation and filling of vacancies.
Amended by:
XIX.1974.4;
XXVI.1994.7;
XVII. 2002.73;
I. 2007.13.

11. (1) A director may resign his office on giving at least three months' notice of his intention in writing to the Prime Minister.

(2) If a director dies, or resigns or otherwise vacates his office before the expiry of the term for which he has been appointed, another person shall be appointed in his place, in accordance with the provisions of article 8 or 9, as the case may require.

Board procedure and quorum.
Amended by:
I. 2007.14;
XIII. 2013.9.

12. (1) Meetings of the Board shall take place as often as may be required but not less frequently than ten times in each year, and there shall not be an interval greater than two months between a meeting of the Board and the next meeting.

(2) Meetings of the Board shall be called by the Governor either on his own initiative or at the request of any two of the other directors.

(3) The Governor shall preside as chairman at the meetings of the Board and, in his absence from any meeting, a Deputy Governor shall preside; and no decision shall be valid which is taken at a meeting of the Board at which neither the Governor nor the Deputy Governors are present.

(4) Five members of the Board, one of whom shall be either the Governor or a Deputy Governor, shall form a quorum at any meeting.

(5) No act or proceeding of the Board shall be invalidated merely by reason of the existence of a vacancy or vacancies among the directors.

(6) Decisions shall be adopted by a simple majority of the votes of the directors present and voting. The chairman shall have an initial vote and, in the event of an equality of votes, he shall have and exercise a casting vote.

(7) All acts done by any person acting in good faith as a director shall be as valid as if he were a director notwithstanding that some defect in his appointment or qualification be afterwards discovered. No act or proceeding of the Board shall be questioned on the ground of the contravention by a director of the provisions of article 10(1).

(8) Subject to the provisions of this article, the Board may regulate its own procedure.

13. The Board shall establish an Audit Committee to be chaired by one of the directors who is neither the Governor nor a Deputy Governor for the purposes of assisting it in fulfilling its responsibilities in matters related to the internal and external audit process, to the system of risk management and internal control and to the financial reporting process.

Audit Committee.

Added by:

I. 2007.15.

Amended by:

XIII. 2013.10.

14. The appointment of officials and other employees of the Bank shall be made by the Board and on such terms and conditions as may be established by the Board.

Staff appointments.

Amended by:

I. 2007.3.

15. (1) The Bank, directors, officers or servants thereof, and any other person appointed to perform a function under this Act, or under any rules or regulations made thereunder, shall not be liable in damages for anything done or omitted to be done in the discharge or purported discharge of any functions under this Act, or any rules or regulations aforesaid, unless the act or omission is shown to have been done or omitted to be done in bad faith.

Exclusion of liability.

Added by:

XXVI. 1994.8.

Amended by:

XVII. 2002.74;

I. 2007.3.

(2) The provisions of subarticle (1) shall also apply to the Bank and to any director, officer or servant thereof and to any other person appointed by the Bank, in the performance or purported performance of any function assigned to the Bank or to any director, officer, servant or other person under any other law.

Remuneration, etc.
Amended by:
I. 2007.3.

16. No salary, fee, wage, allowance or other remuneration paid by the Bank shall be computed by reference to net or other profits of the Bank.

Monetary operations and other functions of the Bank.

Amended by:
XXIX.1968.2;
XIX.1974.5;
XX.1981.3;
XIII.1983.3;
XXXVIII.1986.2;
XI.1988.5;
XXVI. 1994.9;
IX.1997.4.
Substituted by:
XVII. 2002.75.
Amended by:
III. 2004.89;
I. 2007.3, 16;
XIII. 2013.11.

17. (1) In accordance with the Treaties and the Statute, in order to achieve its objectives and to carry out its functions, the operations of the Bank shall include the following:

- (a) opening of accounts for persons as provided in this Act, and, in special cases for other persons with the prior approval of the Board;
- (b) maintenance of accounts with central banks or other domestic or foreign credit institutions and agents and acting as correspondent, banker or agent for any central bank or other credit institution or other monetary authority and for any international financial institution established under international treaties;
- (c) subscription to, purchasing, selling, discounting or re-discounting equity, debt or other financial instruments as may be approved by the Board, provided that any equity interests in an undertaking or immovable property as the Bank may in any way acquire in the course of the satisfaction of debts due to it shall be disposed of at the earliest suitable moment;
- (d) issuing, purchasing, selling, discounting or re-discounting financial instruments bearing the Bank's name in such form and for such terms and maturities as may be approved by the Board;
- (e) granting to any credit or financial institution in Malta loans and advances against adequate security;
- (f) entering into repurchase and reverse repurchase agreements; and
- (g) when it deems such action necessary to safeguard financial stability or in other exceptional circumstances, granting a loan or advance to any credit institution incorporated in Malta against such forms of security as the Board may consider appropriate.

(2) In accordance with the Treaties and the Statute, credit institutions may be required to hold minimum reserves with the Bank, and to report thereon.

(3) In managing and maintaining the financial assets, the Bank may, in accordance with the guidelines and instructions of the European Central Bank, carry out any transactions that it deems suitable, and in particular it may:

- (a) hold, manage, acquire and sell, spot and forward, all types of financial assets and precious metals; and
- (b) carry out any type of financial transactions with domestic or foreign institutions or with international organisations, including borrowing and lending operations.

(4) The Bank may invest staff and pension funds and other internal funds of the Bank in financial instruments approved by the Board.

(5) The Bank may purchase, acquire or lease immovable property as the Bank may consider necessary or expedient for the provision, or future provision, of premises for the conduct of its business or for other similar requirements incidental to the performance of its functions under this Act.

(6) Subject to any other provisions of this Act, the Bank may generally conduct business as a bank, and do all things as are incidental to or consequential upon the exercise of its powers or the discharge of its duties under this Act.

(7) (a) The Bank shall, in the exercise of its functions as a central bank under this Act, enjoy a special privilege over any funds held in the accounts of the Bank as well as any securities, precious metals or any other assets belonging to its debtors and deposited with it as well as any other funds or other assets pledged in its favour by its debtors or by third parties to guarantee the obligations of its debtors.

(b) The special privilege granted by this subarticle shall rank before any other privilege under any other law and notwithstanding the provision of any other law the funds and other assets subject to such privilege shall be applied to the satisfaction of the debt due to the Bank before any other claim.

(c) The Bank may, subsequent to prior notification to the debtor, apply any such funds or assets in satisfaction of the debts due to it without the necessity of any authorisation or sanction by any court or other authority, and may also, for such purpose, dispose of any such assets so held by it or pledged in its favour and apply the proceeds from such disposal directly to satisfy its claims.

(8) The rights of the Bank of any collateral security provided to it by a debtor or other counterparty shall not be affected by the insolvency proceedings against such debtor or counterparty, and such collateral security may be realised by the Bank in satisfaction of its rights.

17A. (1) In accordance with the provisions of the Treaties and the Statue, the Bank may issue, amend or revoke directives in order to implement macro-prudential policy and tools.

Macro-prudential policy.
Added by:
XIII. 2013.12.

(2) Without prejudice to any other provisions on the exchange of information under the Treaties and the Statute or legal acts issued thereunder, the Bank may, on the basis of international agreements or upon reciprocity agreements, or otherwise in order to fulfil its international obligations in relation to macro-prudential oversight, cooperate with the European Systemic Risk Board and, as may be required, with other national or international macro-prudential authorities, in the exchange of information which is required to ensure effective macro-prudential oversight.

Joint Financial Stability Board.
Added by:

17B. (1) There shall be a Joint Financial Stability Board which is a body established for the purpose of ensuring effective cooperation between the Bank and the competent authority in the area of financial stability and which shall have the functions set out in this Act.

(2) The Joint Financial Stability Board shall be composed of the Governor of the Bank, who shall be the Chairman, and in his absence the Deputy Governor of the Bank responsible for financial stability who shall preside, two other representatives of the Bank and two representatives of the competent authority.

(3) The Minister may appoint a representative to participate as a non-voting observer at meetings of the Joint Financial Stability Board. The Chairman may co-opt other non-voting observers.

(4) Without prejudice to the Treaties, the Statute and any legal acts issued thereunder, the Joint Financial Stability Board shall have the function to facilitate cooperation between the relevant authorities in matters impacting on financial stability, including macro-prudential policy and, where relevant, micro-prudential instruments. In addition, it shall have the following functions:

- (a) to formulate policy recommendations designed to safeguard the stability of the financial system and which may be communicated to the relevant public authority or public institution;
- (b) to identify and assess macro-prudential instruments and, where relevant, micro-prudential instruments required to be implemented to mitigate or control potential systemic and other risks to the financial system;
- (c) to give advice about whether and how an authority or public institution should act in respect of a credit or financial institution, where the issue appears to the Joint Financial Stability Board to be relevant to the stability of the financial system;

and any such recommendation, advice or assessment made by the Joint Financial Stability Board shall be taken into consideration by a public authority or public institution in Malta in the execution of its functions. It shall be the duty of such public authority or public institution to seek the opinion of the Joint Financial Stability Board prior to exercising any functions in matters which may impact on financial stability.

(5) The Joint Financial Stability Board shall meet as often as may be necessary or expedient but in any case not less frequently than once every three months. The meetings shall be convened by the Chairman either on his own initiative or on the written request of any three members.

(6) The Joint Financial Stability Board may act notwithstanding any vacancy amongst its members provided there is a quorum consisting of not less than three members present at the meeting including one member from the competent authority.

(7) Subject to the provisions of this article, the Joint Financial Stability Board shall regulate its own procedure.

18. Without prejudice to the Treaties, the Statute and any legal acts issued thereunder any data or information which is transferred within the Bank and, or between the Bank and other persons or entities under the provisions of this Act or of directives issued thereunder, shall be transferable without any restriction or limitation arising under any other law, in particular but not solely related to secrecy or confidentiality, provided that such data or information shall retain its secret or confidential status for other effects and purposes.

Transfer of data or information.

I. 2007.3, 21.

22. (1) Subject to the following provisions of this article, the net profits of the Bank for each financial year shall be determined by the Bank after meeting all expenditure for that year and after making such provision as it thinks fit for bad and doubtful debts, depreciation in assets, contributions to staff and pension funds and all other reserves and contingencies.

(2) After such allocations as may be determined by the Bank under the provisions of subarticle (1) have been made, the remainder of the net profits established as aforesaid shall be paid to the Government.

PART IV

COLLECTION OF STATISTICAL AND OTHER INFORMATION

Substituted by:

XIII. 2013.16.

Collection of statistical and other information.

Added by:

XVII. 2002.83.

Amended by:

I. 2007.3, 22.

Substituted by:

XIII. 2013.17.

23. (1) Without prejudice to the functions of the Bank to collect statistical information under the Treaties and the Statute and any legal acts issued thereunder, and without prejudice to the provisions of article 36(2), the Bank may require any person in general or any entity which is licensed, authorised or registered by a competent authority, any branch of a foreign legal person, or any other person or entity, as may be determined by the Bank, to provide the Bank with such statistical and other information as the Bank may consider necessary to carry out its functions under this Act or any other Act, including in relation to its macro-prudential policy function, and the Bank may enquire into and ask for clarifications of any information so provided.

(2) It shall be the duty of every person or entity required to provide the Bank with statistical and other information to comply with such requirement, without invoking any professional or other secrecy restrictions.

(3) The Bank may issue directives providing for the definition and imposition of reporting requirements, establishing the standards for transmission and accuracy of statistical and other information, and specifying the conditions under which the right to verify or to carry out the compulsory collection of statistical and other information may be exercised under the provisions of subarticle (4).

(4) The Bank shall have the right to verify the accuracy and quality of statistical and other information submitted under this article, and to carry out its compulsory collection. The right to verify statistical and other information or to carry out its compulsory collection shall comprise the right to:

- (a) require submission of documents;
- (b) examine the books and records of the persons or entities referred to in subarticle (1);
- (c) take copies or extracts from such books and records; and
- (d) obtain written or oral explanations.

Any reference to documents, books or records under this article includes a reference to the electronic form of any such documents, books or records.

(5) Except as provided for under Part VIII and Part IX of this Act, information collected under the provisions of this article shall be subject to professional secrecy.

(6) When it deems it necessary in the carrying out of its tasks under this Act and any other Act, the Bank shall prepare and publish statements, consolidating and, or aggregating statistical and other information so furnished under this article and, where necessary, under article 36(1).

(7) The duty of any public authority to consult the National Statistics Office under article 39(2) of the Malta Statistics Authority Act when it undertakes activities with statistical implications shall not apply to the Bank in relation to the execution of its functions under this Act.

PAYMENT SYSTEMS AND PAYMENT SERVICES

Substituted by:

XIII. 2013.23.

34. (1) The Bank shall, in accordance with the Treaties and the Statute, oversee and regulate the operation of, and the participation in, domestic payment systems as well as any form of cash or security transactions, whether domestic or cross-border, that may be involved therein, and may itself establish and operate such a payment system.

Payment systems.

Substituted by:

XVII. 2002.92.

Amended by:

III. 2004.90;

I. 2007.3, 29;

XIII. 2013.26.

(2) No person shall organise, establish, operate or participate in a domestic payment system unless such system, including the rules of the system, are approved by the Bank and, without prejudice to subarticle (3), the Bank shall have the right to order:

- (a) the closure of a domestic payment system which has been set up, or is being operated, without the necessary approval, and
- (b) the suspension of the operations of an approved domestic payment system or the revocation of the approval granted by the Bank in cases where the domestic payment system is or has been operated in breach of such approval, or of any term or condition imposed by the Bank, and the person concerned shall abide by any such orders issued by the Bank.

(3) Any person who contravenes or fails to comply with the provisions of subarticle (2) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine (multa) not exceeding forty-five thousand euro or to imprisonment not exceeding two years, or to both such fine and imprisonment.

(4) No proceedings for an offence under subarticle (3) shall be commenced without the consent of the Attorney General.

(5) The Bank may issue, amend or revoke directives in respect of any or all of the objects mentioned in subarticles (1) and (2) including, without prejudice to the generality of the aforesaid, the regulation of payment systems, the regulation of clearing houses, settlement agents and participants in payment systems as well as the legal enforceability of payments made through such systems and the collateral given in connection with the operation of such a payment system:

Provided that the Bank's powers to issue directives under this subarticle shall be exercised in accordance with the Treaties, Article 22 of the Statute and any regulations issued thereunder.

(6) Unless otherwise provided in the directives made in virtue of subarticle (5), payments, set-off or netting made through or within a payment system including any collateral given by a participant in connection with any such system, shall, notwithstanding any other law relating to bankruptcy or insolvency or to the regulation and enforcement of collateral or otherwise regulating the validity of such payments, set-off or netting and the giving of collateral, be final and binding on all parties thereto and may not be attacked or impugned in any court of law. To the extent specified by the Bank in directives as aforesaid, any payment order, set-off or netting made through or within a payment system by a participant and any collateral given in connection with such a system shall, notwithstanding any other law as aforesaid, not be the subject of an attachment or seizure order, nor of a warrant of prohibitory injunction issued at the request of the creditors of the participant.

Payment services.
Added by:
XIII. 2013.27.

34A. (1) Without prejudice to the Treaties, the Statute and any legal acts issued thereunder, the Bank may, in order to promote the stable and sustainable development and provision of payment instruments, issue, amend or revoke directives which impose conditions on the provision of payment services.

(2) The Bank is appointed as competent authority for the purposes of Article 9 of Regulation \(EC\) No 924/2009 of 16 September 2009 on cross-border payments in the Community and repealing Regulation \(EC\) No 2560/2001, and shall be responsible to monitor compliance with this Regulation and to take all the necessary measures to ensure such compliance.

(3) The Bank is also appointed as competent authority for the purposes of Article 10 of Regulation \(EU\) No 260/2012 of 14 March 2012 on establishing technical and business requirements for credit transfers and direct debits in euro and amending Regulation \(EC\) No 924/2009, and shall be responsible to monitor compliance with this Regulation and take all necessary measures to ensure such compliance.

49. (1) Whosoever counterfeits or utters any counterfeit coin or, without lawful authority or lawful or reasonable excuse (the proof whereof shall lie on the accused person) lightens or impairs or melts down any coin or introduces or utters any debased coin knowing the same to be counterfeit or debased shall be liable, on conviction, to imprisonment for a term of not less than thirteen months and not exceeding nine years:

Provided that where a counterfeit or debased coin is introduced or uttered by a person who proves that at the time at which it came into his custody or possession he did not know the same to be counterfeit or debased, the punishment shall be reduced to a term of imprisonment of not less than two months and not exceeding three years.

(2) Whosoever, without the authority of the Bank, makes or knowingly keeps in his possession any die or other instrument or machine exclusively intended for coinage shall, on conviction, be liable to imprisonment for a term of not less than nine months and not exceeding two years.

(3) Whosoever makes use of legal facilities or materials to manufacture coins in violation of the rights or the conditions under which such facilities or materials are to be used, shall be liable, on conviction, to imprisonment for a term of not less than thirteen months and not exceeding five years.

Obligation to deliver counterfeit currency notes and coins to the Bank.

Added by:
XVII. 2002.99.
Substituted by:
III. 2004.99.
Amended by:
I. 2007.3;
XIII. 2013.35.

50. (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of any other law, a person who is in possession of any counterfeit currency note or coin shall be obliged to withdraw from circulation such currency notes or coins which that person knows or has sufficient reason to believe to be counterfeit, and shall immediately deliver it over to the Bank.

(2) A cash handler as referred to in Article 6 of Council Regulation \(EC\) No 1338/2001 of 28 June 2001 laying down measures necessary for the protection of the euro against counterfeiting, and as subsequently amended, shall have an obligation to ensure that euro currency notes and coins which it has received and which it intends to put back into circulation are checked for authenticity and counterfeits are detected. Any counterfeits so detected shall be delivered immediately to the Bank.

(3) Any currency note or coin which the Bank, after examination, has determined to be counterfeit may be destroyed or otherwise disposed of in such manner and under such conditions as the Bank may determine.

(4) If, in the course of criminal proceedings, the court deems it necessary to order the destruction of counterfeit currency notes or coins, it shall consult with the Bank beforehand and shall, if and as the Bank may require, refrain from ordering their destruction and proceed to consign such currency notes or coins to the Bank for examination.

(5) Where a cash handler as referred to in subarticle (2), or any other person delivers counterfeit currency notes or coins to the Bank in accordance with subarticle (1), that person shall upon request provide the Bank with information on his identity and the identity of the person through whom it received such currency notes or coins if available, as well as information on the relevant date, time and method of receipt. The provision of such information shall be considered a necessary measure in terms of paragraphs (d), (e) and (f) of article 23(1) of the Data Protection Act.

Cap. 440.

50A. The Bank, in order to protect the integrity of euro currency notes and coins, and to implement the provisions of Decision ECB/2010/14 of 16 September 2010 on the authenticity and fitness checking and recirculation of euro banknotes and of Regulation 1210/2010 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 15 December 2010 concerning authentication of euro coins and handling of euro coins unfit for circulation, may issue, amend or revoke directives which lay down rules and procedures on the authentication, fitness checking and recirculation of euro currency notes and coins. Without prejudice to the generality of the aforesaid, the Bank may, in any such directives, lay down procedures to carry out on-site inspections, conduct any monitoring exercise and impose reporting requirements related to the authentication and fitness checking of euro currency notes and coins and may further impose administrative measures to ensure compliance with any such directives.

Power to issue directives on the authenticity and fitness checking of currency notes and coins.
Added by:
XIII. 2013.36.

51. Notwithstanding anything contained in the foregoing articles, under duly warranted circumstances the Bank may, acting in accordance with the provisions of Decision ECB/2003/4 of 20 March 2003 and where it deems appropriate, provide confirmation that a reproduction of a euro banknote is lawful.

Reproduction of euro banknotes.

Amended by:

I. 2007.3, 44.

Substituted by:

XIII. 2013.37.

54. There shall be a unit within the Bank which shall have sole responsibility in Malta to analyse suspected counterfeit euro banknotes and euro coins in accordance with Council Regulation \(EC\) No 1338/2001 of 28 June 2001 laying down measures necessary for the protection of the euro against counterfeiting, as may be subsequently amended, and to carry out any tasks or duties consequential thereto.

55. (1) In accordance with the provisions of Council Regulation \(EC\) No 2182/2004 concerning medals and tokens similar to euro coins, and as subsequently amended, whosoever, unless authorised by the Commission of the European Union, produces, sells, imports or distributes for sale or for other commercial purposes medals and tokens, other than exempted medals and tokens as provided in the said Regulation, similar to euro coins shall be guilty of an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine (multa) not exceeding twenty-three thousand euro, or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months, or to both such fine and imprisonment.

(2) Subarticle (1) shall not apply to medals and tokens issued before 6 December 2004.

PART XI

GENERAL

Administrative penalties.

Added by:

XVII. 2002.100.

Amended by:

III. 2004.102;

I. 2007.3, 45.

Substituted by:

XIII. 2013.38.

56. Without prejudice to the Treaties and the Statute and any legal acts issued thereunder, the Bank may impose administrative penalties which may be recovered by the Bank without recourse to a court hearing and which may be imposed either as a one-time penalty or on a daily cumulative basis until compliance in respect of the following:

- (a) where any person contravenes or fails to comply with a requirement contained in any directive issued under articles 34(5), 34A(1), 43A, 50A or 60A;
- (b) where a person or entity contravenes or fails to comply with a reporting requirement under the provisions of article 23, or with any directive issued thereunder;
- (c) where any person contravenes or fails to comply with any obligation relating to counterfeit currency notes or coins or the authentication and fitness checking of euro currency notes and coins under the provisions of article 50;
- (d) upon any body corporate where the offences referred to in articles 45 to 49 are committed for their benefit by any person, acting either individually or as part of an organ of the body corporate, who has a senior position within the body corporate, on the basis of -
  - (i) a power of representation of the body corporate, or
  - (ii) an authority to take decisions on behalf of the body corporate, or

- (iii) an authority to exercise control over the body corporate, or where such person aids or acts as an accessory in the commission of such offences or the attempted commission of such offences;
- (e) upon any body corporate where the lack of supervision or control by the person referred to in paragraph (d) has rendered possible the commission of an offence referred to in the same paragraph for the benefit of that body corporate by a person under its authority; and
- (f) where any person (payment service provider) contravenes or fails to comply with the provisions of Regulation \(EC\) No 924/2009 of 16 September 2009 on cross-border payments in the Community and repealing Regulation \(EC\) No 2560/2001; and
- (g) where any person, other than any natural person who is not acting for purposes of trade, business or profession in payment service contracts, contravenes or fails to comply with the provision of Regulation \(EC\) No 260/2012 of 14 March 2012 on establishing technical and business requirements for credit transfers and direct debits in euro and amending Regulation \(EC\) No 924/2009:

Provided that an administrative penalty imposed by the Bank may not be greater than:

- (a) fifty thousand euro in case of a one-time penalty; and
- (b) five hundred euro per day for every day in the case of a daily cumulative penalty, and the accumulated penalty shall not exceed fifty thousand euro.

57. (1) Where by virtue of the provisions of article 56, the Bank imposes an administrative penalty, it shall so notify the person or, in the case of an entity under article 23, the person in charge of the administrative affairs of that entity, on whom the penalty is being imposed by means of a notice in writing.

(2) Where an administrative penalty is imposed on a person or entity in respect of a breach of the provisions referred to in article 56(b), such penalty shall be without prejudice to the obligation of the undertaking to meet the costs of the verification and, or, the compulsory collection procedure, as the case may be.

(3) Where a notice imposing an administrative penalty is served on any person or entity and:

- (a) such person or entity does not appeal to the Financial Services Tribunal (hereinafter in this article "the Tribunal") in accordance with the provisions of article 35 and fails to pay to the Bank the administrative penalty within thirty days from the date of service of such notice; or
- (b) such person or entity appeals to the Tribunal and fails

PART XII

TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS FOR THE MALTESE LIRA

62. (1) Upon due notice being given by the Minister in the Gazette, the Bank shall have the power to call in any Maltese lira notes on payment of the equivalent of the face value thereof in euro, and any such notes shall, until ten years following the expiration of the period mentioned in the notice, but subject to the provisions of subarticle (2), be redeemable by the Bank on demand for euro currency at the conversion rate of the Maltese lira for the euro established in terms of the Treaties and without charge.

Notes.
Added by:
I. 2007.48.
Amended by:
XIII. 2013.43.

(2) No person shall be entitled to redeem from the Bank the value of any lost, stolen, mutilated or imperfect Maltese lira note. The circumstances in which, and the conditions and limitations subject to which the value of lost, stolen, mutilated or imperfect Maltese lira notes may be redeemed as of grace shall be within the absolute discretion of the Bank.

(3) After the expiration of one year following the end of the period mentioned in the notice calling in any notes under subarticle (1), any Maltese lira notes so called in but not presented for redemption shall cease to be included in the currency liabilities of the Bank and the value of such notes, after deducting therefrom the value of any notes which are subsequently redeemed, shall be apportioned to the profits of the Bank over the remaining period until the expiration of the ten-year period specified under the provisions of subarticle (1).

(4) Until the expiration of the ten-year period specified under subarticle (1), the provisions of articles 45 to 50 and of article 54 shall also apply to Maltese lira notes.

(5) For the purpose of this article, "Maltese lira notes" means the currency notes which were legal tender in Malta prior to the introduction of the euro.

63. (1) Upon due notice being given by the Minister in the Gazette, the Bank shall have the power to call in any Maltese lira coins on payment of the equivalent of the face value thereof in euro and any such coins shall, until two years following the expiration of the period mentioned in the notice, but subject to the provisions of subarticle (4) and provided that the coins have not been tampered with, be redeemable by the Bank on demand for euro currency at the conversion rate of the Maltese lira for the euro established in terms of the Treaties and without charge.

Coins.
Added by:
I. 2007.48.
Amended by:
XIII. 2013.44.

(2) No person shall be entitled to redeem from the Bank the value of any lost, stolen, mutilated or imperfect coin. The circumstances and conditions under which such value may be redeemed as of grace shall be within the absolute discretion of the Bank.

(3) After the expiration of six months following the end of the period mentioned in the notice calling in any coins under subarticle (1), any Maltese lira coins so called in but not presented for redemption shall cease to be included in the coin liabilities of the Bank and the value of such coins, after deducting therefrom the value of any coins which are subsequently redeemed, shall be apportioned to the profits of the Bank over the remaining period until the expiration of the two-year period specified under the provisions of subarticle (1).

(4) Until the expiration of the two-year period specified under subarticle (1), the provisions of articles 45 to 50 and of article 54 shall also apply to Maltese lira coins.

(5) For the purpose of this article, "Maltese lira coins" means the coins which were legal tender in Malta prior to the introduction of the euro.
