

NAMIBIA CONSTITUTION, ADOPTED ON FEBRUARY 1990

Article 32 [Functions, Powers and Duties]

(3) Without derogating from the generality of the functions and powers contemplated by Paragraph (1), the President shall preside over meetings of the Cabinet and shall have the power, subject to this Constitution to:

i) appoint the following persons:

ee) any other person or persons who are required by any other provision of this Constitution or any other law to be appointed by the President.

(4) The President shall also have the power, subject to this Constitution, to appoint:

b) on the recommendation of the Public Service Commission:

bb) the Governor and the Deputy-Governor of the Central Bank;

(6) Subject to the provisions of this Constitution or any other law, any person appointed by the President pursuant to the powers vested in him or her by this Constitution or any other law may be removed by the President by the same process through which such person was appointed.

(8) All appointments made and actions taken under Paragraph (3), (4), (5), (6) and (7) shall be announced by the President by Proclamation in the Gazette.

(9) Subject to the provisions of this Constitution and save where this Constitution otherwise provides, any action taken by the President pursuant to any power vested in the President by the terms of this article shall be capable of being reviewed, reversed or corrected on such terms as are deemed expedient and proper should there be a resolution proposed by at least one-third of all the members of the National Assembly and passed by a two-thirds majority of all the members of the National Assembly disapproving any such action and resolving to review, reverse or correct it.

(10) Notwithstanding the review, reversal or correction of any action in terms of Paragraph (9), all actions performed pursuant to any such action during the period preceding such review, reversal or correction shall be deemed to be valid and effective in law, until and unless Parliament otherwise enacts.

Article 63 [Functions and Powers]

(2) The National Assembly shall further have the power and function, subject to this Constitution:

h) to debate and to advise the President in regard to any matters which by this Constitution the President is authorized to deal with;

Article 112 [Establishment]

(1) There shall be established a Public Service Commission which shall have the function of advising the President on the matters referred to in Article 113 and of reporting to the National Assembly thereon.

Article 113 [Functions]

The functions of the Public Service Commission shall be defined by Act of Parliament and shall include the power:

- c) to advise the President on the identity, availability and suitability of persons to be appointed by the President to offices in terms of this Constitution or any other law.

Article 128 [The Central Bank]

(1) There shall be established by Act of Parliament a Central Bank of the Republic of Namibia which shall serve as the State's principal instrument to control the money supply, the currency and the institutions of finance, and to perform all other functions ordinarily performed by a central bank.

(2) The Governing Board of the Central Bank shall consist of a Governor, a Deputy-Governor and such other members of the Board as shall be prescribed by Act of Parliament, and all members of the Board shall be appointed by the President in accordance with procedures prescribed by such Act of Parliament.
