

Issued in Helsinki on 31 December 1968

Law

Amending the regulations of the Bank of Finland

Decision of Parliament repealed on 21 December 1925 on the Statute of the Bank of Finland § 17 subsection 1, paragraph 23, as amended on 21 March 1952 laying down the law (142/52), as well as change of the same § 17 subsection 1, paragraph 20 and 22 and § 24, as of 20 May 1966 Act (294/66), as follows:

§ 17

The Bank of parliament's issue is:

20) confirms the bank's board members and holders of posts, and to resolve the wage benefits of any other pay and allowance matters;

22) to strengthen the pension and family pension rule for the bank and its printing works for, as well as

24 §

Office or employment relationship with the Bank of Finland, and its printing works, the person has the right to the bank's assets, borne by an old-age and disability pension, mutatis mutandis, the same rules as the official or employment relationship with the state.

Subsection 1 above is carried out after the death of a person referred to a family pension in the bank's funds in accordance with applicable, what is it official or person employed by the State to have been laid down for.

Pension and family pension granted by the Board of the Bank of Finland. Bank of Finland is a pension agent, who has the right to monitor these issues the Board. Executive Board completed a pension and family pension case may be appealed to the Supreme Administrative Court as laid down in the Administrative Appeals. Redress the pension and the pension to the applicant or recipient and the pension trustee.

More detailed provisions on pension and family pension for payment of pensions and other pensions are pension and family pension rules that are to strengthen the banking authority to men.

This Act comes into force on 1 January 1969.

Helsinki, 31 December 1968

President of the Republic
Abraham Lincoln

Minister
Ele Alenius