4.-(1.) The following Acts are repealed:-

Commonwealth Bank Act 1945;
Commonwealth Bank Act 1948;
Commonwealth Bank Act 1951;
Commonwealth Bank Act 1953.

(2.) The last preceding sub-section does not affect the operation of any amendment of an Act made by an Act referred to in that sub-section or any provision for the citation of an Act as so amended.

5.-(1.) In this Act, unless the contrary intention appears-

" Australia " includes the Territories of the Commonwealth;

" bank " means a person carrying on the business of banking, and includes the Commonwealth Trading Bank of Australia, the Commonwealth Savings Bank of Australia and the Commonwealth Development Bank of Australia;

" officer " or " officer of the Bank " means an officer of the Reserve Bank Service;

" repealed Act " means an Act repealed by this Act or by the Commonwealth Bank Act 1945;

" statutory office " means the office of Governor or Deputy Governor;

" the Bank " or " the Reserve Bank " means the Reserve Bank of Australia;

" the Board " means the Reserve Bank Board established by this Act;

" the Deputy Governor " means the Deputy Governor of the Bank;

" the Governor " means the Governor of the Bank.

(2.) In this Act, a reference to the policy of the Reserve Bank, or to the monetary and banking policy of the Reserve Bank, includes a reference to the policy of the Reserve Bank, or to the monetary and banking policy of the Reserve Bank, as the case may be, in the performance of its functions under the Banking Act 1959 or under any other Act.

6. This Act extends to all the Territories of the Commonwealth.

PART II.-CONSTITUTION, POLICY AND MANAGEMENT OF THE RESERVE BANKS.

7.-(1.) Notwithstanding the repeal effected by sub-section (1) of section four of this Act, the body corporate established under the Commonwealth Bank Act 1911-1943 and continued in, existence under the Commonwealth Bank Act 1945-1953, under the name Commonwealth Bank of Australia-

(a) is preserved and continues in existence as a body corporate under and subject to the provisions of this Act, under the name Reserve Bank of Australia, but so that the corporate identity of the body corporate shall not be affected;

(b) shall have a seal; and

(c) is capable of acquiring, holding and disposing of real and personal property and of suing and being sued.

(2.) Subject to the next succeeding sub-section, a reference in a law of the Commonwealth or of a Territory of the Commonwealth in force immediately before the commencement of this Act to the Commonwealth Bank of Australia or to the Commonwealth Bank shall be read as a reference to the Reserve Bank.

(3.) The last preceding sub-section does not apply to a reference in a law of the Commonwealth specified in the First Schedule to this Act or in a copy of an agreement set out in a Schedule to an Act.

8.* The Bank has such powers as are necessary for the purposes of this Act and, in particular, and in addition to any other powers conferred on it by this Act, has power-

(a) to receive money on deposit;

(b) to borrow money;

(c) to lend money;

(d) to buy, sell, discount and re-discount bills of exchange, promissory notes and treasury bills;

(e) to buy and sell securities issued by the Commonwealth and other securities;

(f) to buy, sell and otherwise deal in foreign currency, specie, gold and other precious metals;

(g) to establish credits and give guarantees;

(h) to issue bills and drafts and effect transfers of money;

(i) to underwrite loans; and

(j) to do anything incidental to any of its powers.

9. There shall be a Reserve Bank Board, which shall be constituted as provided by Part III.

10.-(1.) Subject to this Part, the Board has power to determine the policy of the Bank in relation to any matter and to take such action as is necessary to ensure that effect is given by the Bank to the policy so determined.

- (2.) It is the duty of the Board, within the limits of its powers, to ensure that the monetary and banking policy of the Bank is directed to the greatest advantage of the people of Australia and that the powers of the Bank under this Act, the Banking Act 1959 and the regulations under that Act are exercised in such a manner as, in the opinion of the Board, will best contribute to-
- (a) the stability of the currency of Australia;
 - (b) the maintenance of full employment in Australia; and
 - (c) the economic prosperity and welfare of the people of Australia.

* For further provisions relating to the powers of the Reserve Bank, see Parts II, IV., V. and VII. of the Banking Act 1959-1967.

11. (1) The Board shall, from time to time, inform the Government of the monetary and banking policy of the Bank.
- (2.) In the event of a difference of opinion between the Government and the Board whether that policy is directed to the greatest advantage of the people of Australia, the Treasurer and the Board shall endeavour to reach agreement.
- (3.) If the Treasurer and the Board are unable to reach agreement, the Board shall forthwith furnish to the Treasurer a statement in relation to the matter in respect of which the difference of opinion has arisen.
- (4.) The Treasurer may then submit a recommendation to the Governor-General, and the Governor-General, acting with the advice of the Federal Executive Council, may, by order, determine the policy to be adopted by the Bank.
- (5.) The Treasurer shall inform the Board of the policy so determined and shall, at the same time, inform the Board that the Government accepts responsibility for the adoption by the Bank of that policy and will take such action (if any) within its powers as the Government considers to be necessary by reason of the adoption of that policy.
- (6.) The Board shall thereupon ensure that effect is given to the policy determined by the order and shall, if the order so requires, continue to ensure that effect is given to that policy while the order remains in operation.
- (7.) The Treasurer shall cause to be laid before each House of the Parliament, within fifteen sitting days of that House after the Treasurer has informed the Board of the policy determined under sub-section (4.) of this section-
- (a) a copy of the order determining the policy;
 - (b) a statement by the Government in relation to the matter in respect of which the difference of opinion arose; and
 - (c) a copy of the statement furnished to the Treasurer by the Board under sub-section (3.) of this section.

- 12.-(1.). There shall be a Governor of the Bank and a Deputy Governor of the Bank, who shall be appointed and hold office as provided by Part M.
- (2.) Subject to sub-section (1.) of section ten of this Act, the Bank shall be managed by the Governor.
- (3.) The Deputy Governor shall perform such duties as the Governor directs and, in the event of a vacancy in the office of Governor, the Deputy Governor shall perform the duties of the Governor and shall have and may exercise the powers and functions of the Governor.

13. The Governor and the Secretary to the Department of the Treasury shall establish a close liaison with each other and shall keep each other fully informed on all matters which jointly concern the Bank and the Department of the Treasury.

72. Where-

(a) immediately before the commencement of a period during which a person has been continuously the holder of a statutory office or offices, that person was an officer of the Commonwealth Bank Service under the Commonwealth Bank Act 1945-1953 or of the Reserve Bank Service;

(b) at the end of that period, that person ceases to be the holder of a statutory office by reason of his resignation from that office or the expiration of the period for which he was appointed to that office and is not re-appointed or appointed to that office or the other statutory office; and

- (c) that person desires to be appointed to the Reserve Bank Service under this section, the Bank shall, if that person has not attained the age of sixty years at the end of that first-mentioned period, and may, if that person has attained that age but has not attained the age of sixty-five years at the end of that period, appoint that person to a position in the Reserve Bank Service upon such terms and conditions as, subject to this Part and the regulations, are determined by the Bank having regard-
- (d) to the position in the Commonwealth Bank Service or the Reserve Bank Service, as the case may be, occupied by that person immediately before the commencement of that period; and
- (e) to-
- (i) service by him as an officer of the Commonwealth Bank of Australia, or service by him in the Commonwealth Bank Service, under any repealed Act;
 - (ii) service by him in the Reserve Bank Service; and
 - (iii) service by him as the holder of a statutory office.

73.-(1.) The Bank shall, from time to time and whenever the Treasurer so directs, prepare a list of all officers, together with such particulars as the Treasurer requires, and shall circulate copies of the list among the officers.

(2.) The Bank shall forward a copy of the list to the Treasurer for presentation to the Parliament.

PART VIII. MISCELLANEOUS.

74. (1.) The head office of the Bank shall be at Sydney in the State of New South Wales.

(2.) After the expiration of a reasonable time after the commencement of this Act, the head office of the Bank shall not be in the same building as the head office of any other bank or of the Commonwealth Banking Corporation.

75. In the exercise of its powers and the performance of its functions; the Bank may-

- (a) establish branches and agencies at such places, whether within or beyond Australia, as the Bank thinks fit;
- (b) arrange with a person to act as agent of the Bank in any place, whether within or beyond Australia; and
- (c) act as the agent of a bank carrying on business within or beyond Australia.

76. The Bank may, by instrument under its seal, appoint a person (whether in Australia or in a place beyond Australia) to be its attorney and a person so appointed may, subject to the instrument, do any act or execute any power or function which he is authorized by the instrument to do or execute.

77. The Commonwealth is responsible for the payment of all moneys due by the Bank but nothing in this section authorizes a creditor or other person claiming against the Bank to sue the Commonwealth, in respect of his claim.

78. In determining the net profits of the Reserve Bank, or of the Note Issue Department or the Rural Credits Department of the Bank, for the purposes of this Act, any amounts written off bank premises or provided for contingencies are subject to the approval of the Treasurer.

79. The Bank is not liable to taxation under any law of a State or of a Territory of the commonwealth to which the Commonwealth is not subject and the income of the Bank is not liable to income tax under a law of the Commonwealth.

80. (1.) The Auditor-General shall inspect and audit the accounts- and records of financial transactions of the Bank, and shall forthwith draw the Treasurer's attention to any irregularity revealed by the inspection and audit that, in the opinion of the Auditor-General, is of sufficient importance to justify his so doing.

(2.) The Auditor-General shall, at least once in each year, report to the Treasurer the results of the inspection and audit carried out under the last preceding sub-section.

(3.) The Auditor-General or an officer authorized by him is entitled at all reasonable times to full and free access to all accounts, records, documents and papers of the Bank relating directly or indirectly to the receipt or payment of moneys by the Bank or to the acquisition, receipt, custody or disposal of property of the Bank.

(4.) The Auditor-General or an officer authorized by him may make copies of or take extracts from any such accounts, records, documents or papers.

(5.) The Auditor-General or an officer authorized by him may require a prescribed person to furnish him with such information in the possession of the prescribed person or to which the prescribed person has access as the Auditor-General or authorized officer considers necessary for the purposes of an inspection or audit under this Act, and the prescribed person shall comply with the requirement.

(6.) In this section, " prescribed person " means the Governor, the Deputy Governor or other member of the Board, or an officer.

81.-(1.) The Board shall, as soon as practicable after each thirtieth day of June, prepare

- (a) a report on the operations of the Bank during the year ending on that day; and
 - (b) financial statements, in accordance with the prescribed forms, in respect of that year, and furnish that report and those statements, together with a report of the Auditor-General upon those statements, to the Treasurer.
- (2.) The Auditor-General, in his report upon the financial statements prepared in pursuance of the last preceding sub-section-
- (a) shall report whether the statements are in agreement with the accounts and records of the Bank and show fairly the financial operations and the state of the affairs of the Bank; and
 - (b) shall report on such other matters arising out of the statements as the Auditor-General considers should be made known to the Parliament.
- (3.) The Board shall transmit true copies of each report and financial statement prepared in pursuance of sub-section (1.) of this section, and of the report of the Auditor-General upon each such statement, to the President of the Senate and to the Speaker of the House of Representatives to be laid before the Senate and the House of Representatives respectively.

82. The Bank shall furnish to the Treasurer such periodical statements as are prescribed.

83. Where the Bank holds any property (whether real or personal) or business as security for a loan or advance, and the property or business falls into the hands of the Bank, the Bank may maintain, repair or improve the property, or carry on the business, until the Bank can, in its discretion, dispose of the property or business in the best interests of the Bank.

84.(1.) Contracts on behalf of the Bank may be made, varied or discharged in accordance with the succeeding provisions of this section, and all contracts so made are effectual in law, and are binding upon the Bank and on all other parties to the contract, their heirs, assigns, executors or administrators, as the case may be.

(2.) A contract which, if made between private persons, would be by law required to be in writing under seal may be made, varied or discharged in the name and on behalf of the Bank in writing under the seal of the Bank.

(3.) A contract which, if made between private persons, would be by law required to be in writing and signed by the parties to be charged therewith may be made, varied or discharged in the name and on behalf of the Bank in writing signed by any person acting with the express or implied authority of the Bank.

(4.) A contract which, if made between private persons, would by law be valid although made by parol only and not reduced into writing, may be made, varied or discharged by parol in the name and on behalf of the Bank by a person acting with the express or implied authority of the Bank.

(5.) Nothing in this section invalidates a contract executed on behalf of the Bank by a duly appointed attorney of the Bank if the contract would be valid if executed by the attorney on his own behalf.

85. All courts, judges and persons acting judicially shall take judicial notice of the seal of the Bank affixed to a document and shall presume that it was duly affixed.

86. Notwithstanding anything contained in any law relating to the winding-up of companies, but subject to section sixteen of the Banking Act 1959, debts due to the Bank by a bank specified in the First Schedule to that Act shall, in the winding-up, have priority over all other debts other than debts due to the Commonwealth.

87. The validity of an act or transaction of the Bank shall not be called in question in any legal proceedings. on the ground that any provision of this Act has not been complied with.

88. Where the holder of a statutory office or an officer of the Bank was, immediately before his appointment under this Act or under a repealed Act, an officer of the Public Service of the Commonwealth-

(a) he retains his existing and accruing rights;

(b) his service under this Act and under any repealed Act shall, for the purpose of determining those rights, be taken into account as if it were service in the Public Service of the Commonwealth; and

(c) the Offers' Rights Declaration Act 1928-1959 applies as if this Act and this section had been specified in the Schedule to that Act.

89. The Governor-General may make regulations, not inconsistent with this Act, prescribing all matters which by this Act are required or permitted to be prescribed, or which are necessary or convenient to be prescribed for carrying out or giving effect to this Act or for the conduct of business by the Bank and, in particular, prescribing penalties not exceeding One hundred dollars for offences against the regulations.
